Melbourne International 3 Day Event media applications are restricted to media representatives who have current media accreditation with Equestrian Victoria. Visit the Equestrian Victoria website to apply for EV Media Accreditation:

<https://www.vic.equestrian.org.au/media>

To cover the Melbourne International 3 Day Event representatives of media organisations, who are accredited with Equestrian Victoria, must apply for accreditation.

Please complete the application form <https://form.jotform.com/230858194114861> and Waiver by 22 May 2023.

All media approved for accreditation at the 2023 event will receive free access to the event as well as access to the Media Centre/Retreat where tables and power outlets are available. Wi-Fi is limited at the venue and it is suggested you 'hot spot' to your own internet provider.

Results will be published on <http://www.bspscore.com>

Your media accreditation pass must be worn and displayed at all times. FEI rules prohibit media from accessing the stables.

On Cross Country day for safety and security, Media accreditation & Media bibs/high vis MUST BE worn at all times for media to gain access to the Cross Country phase.

Cross Country Day:

The cross country phase field of play (FOP) is designated by ropes and barriers. Media wearing bibs and credentials may move inside the FOP at no further than arm's distance from the tape or barrier. Media are not allowed to cross the FOP except at designated cross over points.

Photographers and media personnel must abide by all directions given by competition officials, including jump judges (located at each cross country jump), the technical delegate, cross country course designer or any other identified event officials. Personnel who do not comply with the directions of competition officials may be removed from the event and their accreditation immediately cancelled.

If you are using a remote camera during Cross Country, its position must be approved by the Technical Delegate or Course Designer.

We seek your cooperation in ensuring the accreditation guidelines are respected. The safety of those involved in the event is our prime concern and we are certain all media will be able to do their jobs within the guidelines. A breach of the guidelines or refusal to follow the reasonable direction of the Event Organisers and security will result in the immediate forfeit of accreditation

Completing the form & Waiver

Terms and Conditions of Accreditation Waiver – All accreditation application forms MUST include the signature of the applicant. By signing the Waiver the applicant agrees to the Terms and Conditions outlined in this information. An application MUST be completed for each applicant if more than one staff member is planning to attend.

Note: Applicants must be part of the editorial team, or on an assignment for a specific publication, media outlet or news service. Freelance journalists will only be granted accreditation if they are representing a bona fide outlet.

This form will be attached to your media accreditation and must be signed when collecting accreditation.
